revolutionary peer-to-peer platform allowing users to buy and sell crypto directly from their own wallet. The platform does not hold users' crypto at any point in the transaction process, ensuring complete security and control over their assets. Elbaite was founded after the co-founders fell victim to several exchange hacks, driving them to develop a safer and more secure way to trade cryptocurrency. Elbaite is committed to accelerating the adoption of cryptocurrency among Australians by providing a reliable, trustworthy, and secure exchange platform.
