thrilled that our clients and others in the community recognize us for the great work we do to support the critical technology needs of our clients.

Organizations throughout our region are falling victim to cyberattacks, and are turning to Custom for assistance with their prevention, remediation and recovery plans. This assistance includes the combination of our cyber and technology services. This award is an affirmation of the trust Long Islander's place in our amazing cyber and technology services teams.”

More than a million votes were tallied for Long Island's favorites in the Best of LI 2023 contest, which is conducted each year by Schneps Media, and sponsored by Bethpage Federal Credit Union. This award is highly sought after because it is an affirmation from the community that the winning organizations are the best in their field.
