About the Company

Simple Heart Co. was founded in 2017 by Chloe Gomez, nurse anesthetist, and mom of four. Chloe started the company after she had her firstborn and wanted mom clothes that were trendy and cool. With her father being a silkscreener of over 20 years, together they began making prints at no cost to Chloe – with her friends eventually starting to buy her designs. Eventually, the company grew to the popular platform, Etsy, and is now a fully-owned and operated website.
