

Portland Collaborative Divorce attorney Patrick Ward to guest on “Hello, Rose City!”

PORTLAND, OREGON, UNITED STATES, March 7, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Portland Collaborative Divorce attorney and mediator Patrick Ward is set to appear on KGW lifestyle show “Hello, Rose City!” on Wednesday, March 8 at 11 a.m. PST to discuss the Collaborative Divorce process and Divorce With Respect Week.

“I look forward to connecting with audience members and promoting the Collaborative Divorce process and Divorce With Respect Week,” Patrick Ward said. “Divorce With Respect Week is taking place March 6-10 and is an opportunity for Oregon residents with questions about divorce to meet with an attorney, divorce coach, mental health professional or financial specialist for free to learn more about their divorce options at no cost.”

Collaborative Divorce is a more peaceful process for resolving family law disputes where two parties work with lawyers, child specialists, mental health professionals and financial coaches to craft their own divorce agreements. Decisions are made by the couple without going to court or involving a judge or other third-party decision maker. The Collaborative Divorce process, as advocated for by members of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals (IACP), has been nominated for the 2023 Nobel Peace Prize for transforming the way families resolve conflict.
