DICE Dental's custom-fit dentures are a popular solution for those looking to replace missing teeth. The practice offers full and partial dentures, which can replace all or just a few missing teeth on the top or bottom gum line.

"Dentures have come a long way over the years thanks to advanced technology," says Dr. Katie Alger, owner and operator of DICE Dental in Southampton. "They look and feel just like your natural teeth. We work with patients to help them achieve a comfortable fit and desired look."

In addition to dentures, DICE Dental also provides dental crowns and dental implants. Dental crowns can restore damaged teeth and start at just $675 in Southampton. Dental implants are a long-lasting, natural-looking replacement for a single tooth or arch of teeth, with prices starting at $850.

Dr. Alger's impressive qualifications include degrees from the University of Pennsylvania and Columbia University. She was also a dental implant fellow at Northwell Health, a competitive and prestigious program.
