

Indie Publisher Hosting a Tribute Event to Giorgio Gomelsky - the Man Behind British R&B

At One Kew Road, Richmond: the former Crawdaddy Club founded by Gomelsky and the venue which launched the careers of the Rolling Stones and the Yardbirds.

RICHMOND, SURREY, UNITED KINGDOM, March 8, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Indie publisher Aurora Metro Books are hosting a book signing and live music event on the 30th April 2023 to launch their new book Giorgio Gomelsky 'For Your Love'. This is taking place at One Kew Road, Richmond: the former Crawdaddy Club founded by Giorgio Gomelsky and the venue which launched the careers of the Rolling Stones and the Yardbirds.

The book, Giorgio Gomelsky 'For Your Love', is the first biography of the impresario and record producer who was at the centre of the counterculture in 60s' London. It is written by close friend Francis Dumaourier, who will be at the event, talking about the book and signing copies. There will also be live music, memories from those that knew Giorgio personally, and exclusive pre-release recordings of Giorgio Gomelsky's celebrated work featuring legendary artistes for sale on the night from Charly Records.

Review of the book:

"At last! A biography of the man who did more than most to shape rock music in the 60s and 70s. Francis was a close friend and admirer of his subject in his later years, and his book captures Gomelsky's brilliant butterfly mind; a labour of love." – Ralph Brookfield, musician and writer of books on music.
