season approaching, FlyFin aims to simplify the tax preparation process for freelancers and self-employed individuals.

"We understand that filing taxes can be an overwhelming, stressful experience for everyone, but especially for those new to freelancing or starting their own business," said Jaideep Singh, co-founder and CEO of FlyFin. "That's why we're excited to offer an expanded suite of free tools that help solo entrepreneurs, freelancers, creators and gig workers maximize their tax savings and file their taxes

Itemized Deduction Calculators: These free tools help filers determine whether they should take the standard deduction or itemize their deductions for the most significant tax savings. The tax calculators cover home improvement tax deductions and home office deductions.

Tax Form Guides: Free tax guides that explain how to fill out different tax forms, including the 1040 form, Schedule C, and Schedule SE.

Independent Contractor taxes: A free guide that helps freelancers navigate the legal requirements of working as independent contractors.

Tax Bracket Calculator: A free tool that helps filers determine which tax bracket they fall into and how much they owe in taxes.

FlyFin's comprehensive one-stop-shop of free tax tools is part of its commitment to providing its users with a straightforward, hassle-free experience when managing their finances. In addition to the tax tools, FlyFin's AI-powered tax app and 24/7 expert CPA advice offered in the app have attracted the largest freelancer community for taxes and finances on Instagram, with approximately 110,000 members.
