Consulta's online immigration legal service is a game-changer in the industry, as it offers an efficient solution that saves clients money. The platform allows clients to access immigration services from the comfort of their homes, without the need to attend in-person appointments or pay for unnecessary legal fees.

We are the pioneers of online Immigration services, helping our clients with unique needs, while saving them time and money, regardless of income bracket.”

Tania Cruz

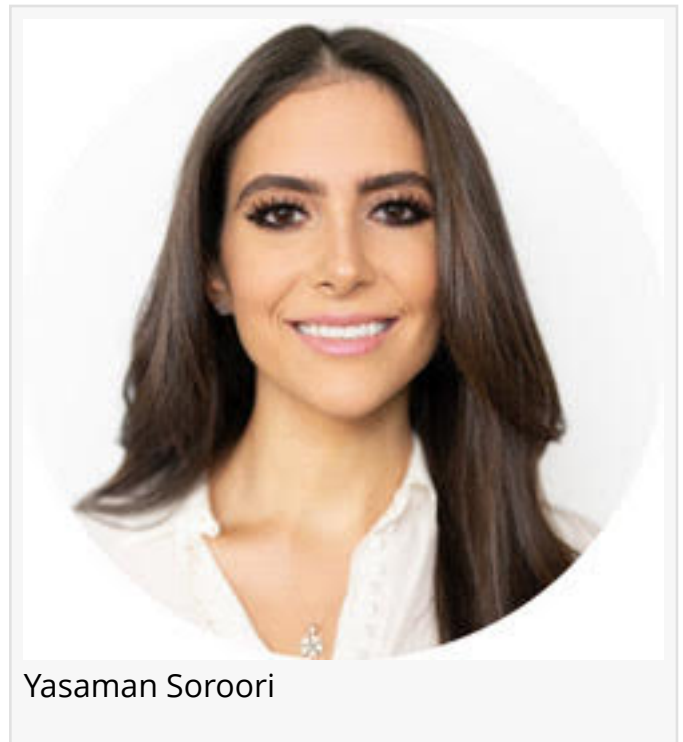

"Having worked in the Immigration field for 10 years, I wanted to educate people and spread awareness in immigration filing, simplifying the process and making it accessible for everyone. It's about spreading awareness and empowering customers to make informed decisions." said Tania.

"Immigrants have always been a vital part of the fabric of our society. Their contributions to our economy, culture, and communities cannot be overstated. At Consulta, we are committed to helping immigrants navigate the complex and often confusing immigration process so that they can fully integrate into our communities and contribute to our shared prosperity," said Yasaman.

In addition to their online immigration service, Consulta is planning to offer more online services within the immigration and legal field.
