

Scratch Out Loud Presents “Queen of the Mix” DJ Competition

Scratch Out Loud to launch the next wave of talented female DJs who aspire to ascend in the world of music & entertainment via "Queen of the Mix" DJ Competition

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, USA, March 9, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Wednesday, March 8th, 2023, Scratch Out Loud officially announced its “Queen of the Mix” DJ Competition on International Women's Day, which celebrated the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women.

DJ Jazzy T & DJ Princess Cut

Co-founder of Scratch Out Loud and Celebrity DJ, DJ Princess Cut excitedly stated that, “With March being Women's History Month, we figured this would be the perfect time to launch this contest to shine light on emerging female DJs and equip them with the essentials to be successful in what’s becoming less and less of a male dominated field. Our goal is to balance the scales with some new, fresh, and talented female DJs.”

DJ Jazzy T, fellow Scratch Out Loud Instructor, Producer, and Radio Personality, added, “I’m super excited that women DJs are starting to get the well-deserved recognition of being amazing DJs. This competition is designed to mentor and encourage more women to pursue a DJ career. Opportunities weren't always there for us women to thrive in this industry, and with this competition, I hope that women not only thrive in it but continue to pass the baton to the next lady that’s interested in becoming the next Queen of the Mix.”

Scratch Out Loud is at the forefront of preserving the art of DJing and turntablism while passing along the art of hip-hop and culture to future generations. Now the Atlanta based DJ School is looking to help launch the next wave of talented female DJs who aspire to ascend in the world of music and entertainment via this competition.
