Law firms have long struggled with the complexities of electronic billing. The process is often confusing and time-consuming, with invoices frequently rejected due to errors or non-compliance with client guidelines. eBilling Expert changes all that by providing a single platform for law firms to manage all their electronic billing needs.

With eBilling Expert, law firms can easily track the progress of each invoice, from submission to payment. The product provides information about appeals, write-offs, and reductions, so law firms know exactly what is happening with each electronic invoice submitted. This level of transparency ensures that law firms can quickly identify and resolve any issues, minimizing the risk of rejected invoices and delays in payment.

"eBilling Expert is a game-changer for law firms," said SCAN-LOGIC CO-CEO, Scott McCarthy. "We've listened carefully to our customers' needs and developed a product that not only simplifies the billing process but also provides more information than any other product on the market. We're proud to offer a solution that will help law firms save time and money while ensuring compliance with client guidelines."

eBilling Expert is now available for purchase, and law firms can take advantage of the product's comprehensive features to streamline their billing process and improve their bottom line. eBilling Expert works with all existing eBilling companies including TyMetrics, Legal-X, Legal Exchange and all other e-billing companies.
