

National Association of Flight Instructors Plans Educational Sessions at SUN 'n FUN

Accepting Advance Reservations for Fall Summit

LAKELAND, FLORIDA, USA, March 13, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hundreds of members and guests of the National Association of Flight Instructors (NAFI) are planning to visit the association's activities here March 28 to April 2 at Lakeland Linder International Airport for the SUN 'n FUN Aerospace Expo, Florida's largest convention.

NAFI's formidable presence will highlight its planned flight instruction safety and business summit scheduled from Oct. 24 to 26. NAFI's inaugural summit in the fall will also be held on the SUN 'n FUN campus. Attendees at the SUN 'n FUN this month can also register for the fall summit online below and also at NAFI's booth at the fly-in and airshow. NAFI's exhibit will be in Hangar A, Booth 077.

It will be staffed by NAFI volunteer board members, including Chair Karen Kalishek, Secretary JD Debosky, Chair Emeritus Robert Meder and Board Member Victor Vogel. They will be in Lakeland throughout the event to showcase NAFI's programs, benefits, and networking opportunities. In addition, existing members and new members can renew or join NAFI at a discounted rate during the show.

Karen Kalishek is a Designated Pilot Examiner, three-time NAFI Master Instructor, CFI, CFII, MEI, CFI-G, AGI, IGI, FAA Gold Seal Instructor and FAAS Team Lead Representative. She holds an ATP certificate and has ASES and Glider Commercial privileges.

Board members Vogel and Kalishek will be making special presentations during the SUN 'n FUN airshow and fly-in.

"When are you too old to fly?" by Vogel is scheduled:

Wednesday, March 29 at 11 a.m. in the Central Florida Aerospace Academy (CFAA) Room 13

Thursday, March 30 at 10 a.m., CFAA Rm 13

Friday, March 31 at 10 a.m., CFAA Rm 09

Habit Forming: Safety Tips for Every Flight by Kalishek is scheduled:

Wednesday, March 29, at 1 p.m. in Room CFAA-03.
