Trending Respiratory Devices And Equipment (Therapeutic) Market Trend

In March 2020, Masimo, a global leader in noninvasive monitoring technologies acquired NantHealth, Inc's connected care business for an undisclosed amount. NantHealth is a provider a tablet-optimized application that sits on top of our DCX platform to provide clinicians more convenient and ubiquitous access to capture a wide array of patient vitals such as respiratory rate, blood pressure, and heart rate in addition to performing patient assessments. This move of Masimo will leverage its capabilities with NantHealth's solutions that can enable a more efficient patient rounding and assessment workflow by providing a near real-time stream of data from the patient's bedside unlike periodic sampling typically entered into an EHR hours later.
