This celebratory night of music will include the premiere of "Sunburst Fanfare," a work composed by James Stephenson in honor of the 40th Anniversary of the NJWS. The program will spotlight the incredible musicianship of both guest soloists with Mr. Martin performing Josef Haydn's "Concerto for Trumpet" and Mr. Alessi performing Ferdinand David's "Concertino for Trombone". The two soloists will join forces to perform Joseph Turrin's work, "Tryptich for Trumpet and Trombone".

The NJWS program will also include works by H. Owen Reed, Gaetano Donizetti, and Henry Fillmore.

The evening will begin at 7:30pm with a prelude performance under the baton of Mr. Michael Jedwabnik. The NJWS will begin their portion of the evening at 8:00pm under baton of DR. CHRISTIAN WILHJELM – CONDUCTOR AND MUSIC DIRECTOR.

More information and online tickets can be found at: www.njwindsymphony.org. Tickets will also be available at the door.
