UNITED STATES, March 20, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mariana Fagnilli is a senior executive with over 20 years of experience in multinational organizations. She is a passionate advocate for equality and fairness for underserved and underrepresented communities. Mariana is a global leader who has worked promoting initiatives that drive social change and enhance company competitiveness.

At a young age, she was motivated by the human rights abuses that occurred in Argentina in the 1970s. Mariana became determined to pursue a law degree to become a human rights lawyer, ready to advocate and give a voice to those unseen.

After arriving and adapting to a new country and culture, Mariana realized that her search for belonging was shared by many and she had a desire to help others succeed. In her work, she aims to create shared-value solutions to ensure equitable opportunities in health, education, tech and financial services for everyone. Her experience across industries allow her to put into practice all the insights and knowledge that these diverse experiences have granted her.

Mariana has channeled her expertise, working globally in both public and private sectors, to achieve purpose-driven outcomes. She believes in the impact one individual can make, and the need to amplify the voice as a collective: “Our strength lies in our shared experience and connection. As Latina leaders, we can use this collective power to lift each other up.”
