□ Agreement with Asian Olympic Foundation for Building Olympic University in Canada

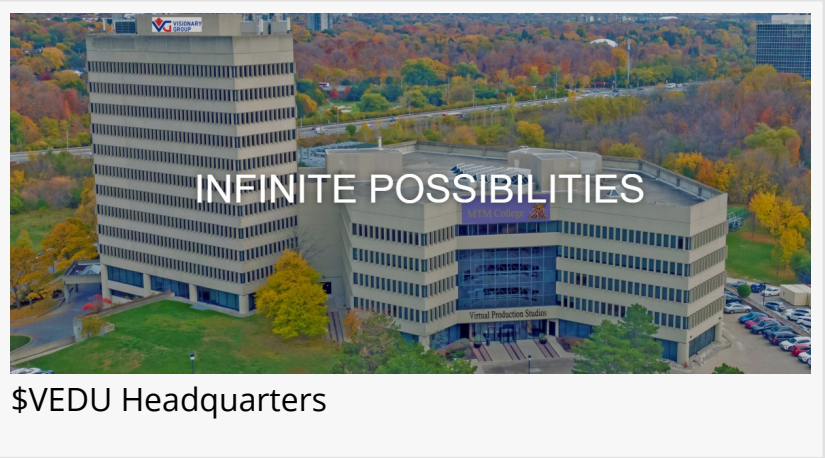

VEDU has announced that the Company has signed a formal agreement with the Asian Olympic Foundation and the Beijing Association for the Promotion of Olympics-Related Culture, to jointly establish the Olympic University of Canada.

In order to elevate a global view of Olympic Culture, help Canada's development of national education, and train sports talents, champions, and management team members for the Olympic Games, VEDU is dedicated to promoting the Olympic spirit and the Game's brand. The Agreement specified jointly building an Olympic University Canada, the world's second of the kind, in Toronto, Canada.

In future, The University will gather global champions and sports talents, and develop a vibrant education system, that provides Olympic Games champions and retired athletes with a new home. On the campus, the University has planned to build a World Championships Center, the Games' Training Camps, and an Olympic Cultural environment, thus systematically hosting an education-research-production center. This plan has received strong support from the Canadian government.

The plan for the Olympic University program has been formally submitted to the International Olympic Committee, for consideration, by the Asian Olympic Foundation and the Beijing Association for the Promotion of Olympics-Related Culture. It is expected to receive approvals from the Committee, first for the Olympic International High School, in April 2023 And then followed by the approval of Olympic University in July 2023. VEDU is responsible for applications, registrations, and investment with Canadian government agencies, for local operation. VEDU plans to establish the headquarters of Olympic University on its property at 95 and 105, Moatfield Drive, North York, Toronto, the twin buildings and the campus being already under the Company's ownership.

The Beijing Association for the Promotion of Olympics-Related Culture is a member of the global family of Olympic Games. It was established in 2006, under the approval of the International Olympic Committee and the Beijing municipal government. The mission is to carry forward the Olympic spirit, publicize the Olympic ideology, actively exchange and cooperate with other international organizations and national (regional) Olympic Committees, and jointly develop the technology, education, equipment, facilities, and talents, within a standardization ecosystem.

Asian Olympic Foundation is an international organization registered in Hong Kong, China. It is supported and delegated by the Olympic Council of Asia and the Beijing Association for the Promotion of Olympics-Related Culture. The Hong Kong-based foundation has set the main operation developing Olympic culture, art, education, sports, science, and technology, promoting and elevating the international sports of the Olympic Games.

□ Visionary Education Technology Holdings Group Inc Cooperates with Camosun College to Advances Plans for An On-Campus Film Studio

On February 23rd VEDU announced that the Company has been selected by Camosun College, a public college located in Victoria, British Columbia, Canada, to help turn plans for an on-campus film studio with education components into a reality. The decision to move to the next stage of discussions with the Camosun College to build a film studio is the result of a Request for Pre-Qualification released in September 2022. The Request for Pre-Qualification invited respondents to become pre-qualified to design, build and fund a film studio and digital media education center in exchange for a 99-year lease with Camosun College.

It is anticipated that the discussions will result in a formal agreement between VEDU and Camosun, which will finalize the scope, timeline, and cost to build a film studio with education components.

In spring 2021, the B.C. The government provided $150,000 to aid Camosun in the exploration of educational opportunities for students in the B.C. film industry and the potential development of an on-campus film studio.

Ms. Fan Zhou, Chief Executive Officer of VEDU, commented, "We are very pleased to be selected by Camosun College to move to the next stage of discussions around the development of a film studio on their campus. It reflects our effort to continue our growth plan to collaborate with colleges and create more academic opportunities for students. This will help fulfill our mission to broaden access to the multicultural education system of Canada and facilitate the achievement of students' full potential."

Established in 1971, Camosun is one of the largest public colleges in British Columbia with campuses in the Traditional Territories of the Lekwungen and W̱SÁNEĆ peoples. For over 50 years, Camosun has been delivering innovative, relevant, and applied education, supporting communities, businesses, and employers.
