Riding high on his debut record release of American Storyteller, Tommy Howell is excited to share his stories from Hollywood and showcase music from his latest album, American Storyteller.

"I've spent 40 years in Hollywood working with some of the world's greatest storytellers. Now I'm in Nashville writing music and telling my own stories. Backstage with Tommy Howell and Friends is designed to give the audience a personal look into both my life and the lives of some of our most popular artists through music and Hollywood. Come hang with me and some of my friends and sing some songs and holler "Wolverines!" or "Stay Gold!" while having a great time right here at the City Winery Nashville." said Howell.

Presley Tucker, daughter of country music icon Tanya Tucker, will be joining Tommy and his band as a background singer and vocalist. Produced by Sam Parker, C. Thomas Howell, and Andrew Norman, this one-of-a-kind celebrity experience will be jam-packed with special guests with the likes of Charlie Sheen, Adam Carolla, and the cast of Cobra Kai, to name a few. Attendees will get a glimpse of four decades worth of Tommy's acting, directing, and performing career from personal stories between him and his friends.

Generations know Tommy as the actor and leading man behind the iconic "Ponyboy Curtis" in The Outsiders, Red Dawn's intrepid Robert or "The Reaper" in Criminal Minds. From Elizabeth Taylor and Francis Ford Coppola to Steven Spielberg and Patrick Swayze to Emma Stone and Bill Burr, from E.T. to The Walking Dead, Tommy has worked with the best in Hollywood during his enduring career with more than 240 film and TV credits. He is ready to share some behind-the-scenes moments with his legions of fans.

Special thanks to the following sponsors: Sheraton Grand Nashville Downtown, Visit Music City, Roland, BOSS, Rock N Roll Relics, iHeartRadio, Hercules Stands, and Ride Home Management.
