downtown Orlando, Florida, is set to host Hire Day Orlando, the largest job fair and career expo in the South. With over 120 employers offering a combined 6,000 job opportunities, job seekers in the area will want to attend this incredible event.

Hire Day Orlando is the ultimate opportunity for those seeking new career opportunities in Central Florida. The event will feature an impressive lineup of top employers, including companies from over 20 industries, including hospitality, healthcare, technology, government, and many more.

"Hire Day Orlando is a special day for the Orlando region," states Roger Lear, President of OrlandoJobs.com. "We are fortunate to have world-class employers alongside our community partners and numerous free resources to connect job seekers with fantastic jobs."

In addition to the incredible job opportunities available at Hire Day Orlando, the event also offers several other valuable resources for job seekers. Attendees can take advantage of free professional headshots, resume reviews, and powerful career sessions from career experts and community partners who bring resources to help job seekers in many ways.

"For job seekers, Hire Day Orlando is a must-attend event because you get to meet employers face-to-face," states Lear. "We know applying to a job online and never hearing back from the employer frustrates job seekers, and this event allows everyone to make a live first impression!"

Parking at the Amway Center is free, making it easy and convenient for job seekers to attend the event without worrying about additional expenses. With so many valuable resources and opportunities available, attending Hire Day Orlando is necessary for anyone looking to advance their career in Central Florida.

Hire Day Orlando will occur at the Amway Center in downtown Orlando, Florida on April 6,th, 2023 from 11am-3pm. Interested job seekers can visit the event website for more information and to register for this exciting event. Information about Hire Day Orlando can be found at www.HireDayOrlando.com.
