

LIVEPLEX PARTNERS WITH PURESOFTWARE TO APPROACH GLOBAL PAYMENTS MARKET

PureSoftware adds web 3.0 components to its products

PALO ALTO, CA, UNITED STATES, March 14, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Liveplex Incorporated, a web 3.0 technology provider and PureSoftware, a global software products and digital services company today announced a strategic partnership. With this partnership, PureSoftware will be able to offer its customers transparency, traceability, data security, digital asset protection, and interoperability. This integration will help PureSoftware enable brands to transform to web 3.0 at a lower cost with extensive security, data integrity and value for money.

At Liveplex, we are committed to providing the decentralized financial infrastructure needed to power the digital world of tomorrow.”

By integrating Web 3.0 functionality into its Arttha wallet, PureSoftware will make it easy for customers to establish a web 3.0 presence. The company will help its customers establish a strong relationship with brands by offering them blockchain-based safety, security, and interoperability infused into the platform.

Manish Sharma, CEO of PureSoftware says, “We are excited to partner with Liveplex and offer blockchain-powered excellence to our growing global customers. The alliance is the next big step which will help us empower decentralized finance (DeFi) and secure our customers from fraud attacks and enable transparency and deliver exceptional digital experiences.”

The partnership with PureSoftware comes amid the company achieving several key milestones. Liveplex recently announced its new features for on-chain and off-chain security.

Vimal Kumar, the President of Liveplex, says, "At Liveplex, we are committed to providing the decentralized financial infrastructure needed to power the digital world of tomorrow. Our partnership with PureSoftware is our path to deliver a frictionless web 3.0 experience to the vibrant DeFi community."
