/EINPresswire.com/ -- Growing up as an 8-year-old in 1961 in a small bush town called Moree NSW, 10 hours train time North West of Sydney, Ron attended a small Catholic school taught by the Sisters of Mercy.

Sister Banarto, a very old Nun, was his Religion teacher (she would be 135 if she was alive today!) The kids thought the old Nun was crazy and a fanatic on Stalin and communism. She would ask "If the Russian soldiers come, they will ask - do you believe in Jesus Christ? If you say yes, they will kill you, if they say no, they will let you go - what are you going to say?"

On several nights, Ron, the budding alter boy was settled by his mother after nightmares on this subject.
