Danay is an ambitious and hard-working attorney who wears her heart on her sleeve. Her personal ties to Bakersfield have created a natural bond between her work and her community. In an area where there has been much fear surrounding immigration laws and deportation, Danay remembers times when her peers struggled to speak up for themselves. Even from a young age, it was her natural instinct to provide help and advocacy, sparking her interest in law.

“

I have learned so much in the last five years. I really feel like I belong here and this is what I was meant to do. I look forward to continuing to grow and to be of service to others.”
