

Viscosoft Launches Free, Online Tool to Interpret Dreams Using Advanced AI

Visitors can choose iconic personas, such as Yoda, Queen Elizabeth & Donald Trump to interpret their dreams.

CHARLOTTE, NC, USA, March 17, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Earlier today, Viscosoft, the American sleep and mattress topper company, launched a revolutionary online tool that is set to change the way people interpret their dreams. The tool, named "The Dream Machine," uses advanced artificial intelligence technology provided by OpenAI and ChatGPT to analyze people's dreams and provide them with accurate interpretations.

What sets "The Dream Machine" apart from other dream interpretation tools is its unique set of dream interpreter personas. Users can choose from a range of iconic personas, such as Yoda, Queen Elizabeth, and even Donald Trump, to interpret their dreams. This feature adds a fun and personalized touch to the dream interpretation experience, making it an enjoyable and engaging process.

"We're excited to bring this first-of-its-kind online tool to our customers," says Gabe Dungan, CEO of Viscosoft. "We understand the importance of a good night's sleep and the role that dreams play in our overall well-being. With 'The Dream Machine,' we aim to provide our customers with a fun and interactive way to understand dreams and gain insights into their innermost thoughts and emotions."

To use "The Dream Machine," customers simply visit the Viscosoft website, choose their preferred dream interpreter persona, and enter the details of their dream. The AI-powered tool then analyzes the dream and provides a personalized interpretation based on the user's chosen interpreter.

"We worked closely with OpenAI and ChatGPT to ensure that 'The Dream Machine' delivers accurate and insightful interpretations," adds Dungan. "We're confident that this tool will be a valuable resource for anyone looking to gain a deeper understanding of their dreams and themselves."

The launch of "The Dream Machine" is part of Viscosoft's commitment to providing customers with innovative and high-quality sleep products. The company has a range of mattresses, pillows, and mattress toppers designed to help customers achieve the best possible sleep.

"We believe that sleep is the foundation of a healthy and happy life," says Dungan. "We're proud to be at the forefront of the sleep industry and look forward to continuing to innovate and provide our customers with the best possible sleep experience."

"The Dream Machine" is now available on the Viscosoft website, and customers are encouraged to try it out and discover the hidden meanings behind their dreams. With its unique set of dream interpreter personas, this tool is sure to provide a fun and engaging experience for anyone looking to explore the mysteries of their subconscious mind.
