

Trustpoint.One Announces Platinum Partnership with OpenAxes

ALTANTA, GA, USA, March 16, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Trustpoint.One, a leading provider of alternative legal services, is pleased to announce its platinum partnership with OpenAxes, a technology provider focused on automating information compliance. The partnership will offer an integrated approach, AxesDataNow, to help organizations comply with data privacy regulations, improve their information governance posture, and safeguard sensitive information and personal data of customers.

Trustpoint.One will provide consulting expertise in data privacy and information governance, while OpenAxes will offer its technology solutions to deliver a comprehensive suite of services to clients. The joint offering includes data discovery, data privacy and security assessments, compliance gap analysis, policy and procedure development, as well as technology implementation and support. Trustpoint.One and OpenAxes will also provide repeatable, defensible, and auditable solutions for legal hold, responding to data subject access requests, responding to FOIA/public records requests, data classification, records retention, data minimization, internal investigations, audits, and early case assessment.

"We are excited to partner with OpenAxes to offer our clients a complete solution to their data privacy and information governance needs," said Mark Hawn, CEO of Trustpoint.One. "The partnership allows us to combine our consulting expertise with OpenAxes' technology solutions to provide clients with a comprehensive and customized approach to managing their data."

The partnership will help organizations navigate the complexities of data privacy and information governance, while also ensuring compliance with regulations such as GDPR, CCPA, HIPAA, and others.

"Our platinum partnership with Trustpoint.One is an exciting development for OpenAxes," said Mark McClory, CEO of OpenAxes. "Their consulting expertise combined with our technology solutions will enable us to deliver a more comprehensive and efficient solution to our clients. We are looking forward to working together to help organizations manage their data and privacy and information governance needs."

The partnership is effective immediately, and the joint offering is available to clients starting today.
