

New Monthly Community Fair at the Church of Scientology Continues, Rain or Shine

Despite this month's record rainfall, the Church of Scientology Los Angeles held its monthly community festival on L. Ron Hubbard Way.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, March 16, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Church of Scientology Los Angeles held its monthly "First Sunday" street festival last week despite the predictions of local meteorologists. And it came off without a hitch for vendors and hundreds of neighbors who came for the fun.

L. Ron Hubbard Way was filled with food and beverage stands and jewelry and craft displays created by local artisans. And there was face painting and bouncy houses for the kids.

And rain doesn't cut across the Church's weekly food drive, which they have continued to hold for the past 40 weeks.

"This is a great neighborhood to live and work in," says Susanna Kaneer, public affairs director for the Scientology Churches of Greater Los Angeles. "We encourage everyone to save the date for the next First Sunday Street Fair and join us for a safe, family-friendly afternoon."

Kids had their faces painted at the "First Sunday" street festival organized by the Church of Scientology Los Angeles for the East Hollywood community.

Church of Scientology Los Angeles holds a weekly food drive each Saturday.

The Church of Scientology Los Angeles is open every day of the year and the staff are at your service to answer your questions. The Church is designed to provide ideal facilities for Scientologists on their ascent to higher states of spiritual freedom and to serve as a home for the entire community—a meeting ground of cooperative effort to uplift people of all denominations.

Scientology ecclesiastical leader Mr. David Miscavige dedicated the Church of Scientology Los Angeles in 2010.
