This study mainly helps understand which market segments or Countries; Insurance carriers, and Aggregators should focus on in years to come to channel their efforts and investments in Guaranteed Asset Protection (GAP) Insurance to maximize growth and profitability. The growth in 2023 is noticeably slower and mature markets in North America and Western Europe requires “heavy lifting” to address such trends due to the dynamic macroeconomic and regulatory environment.

The distribution channels in the insurance industry, are always of great importance, reflecting the “push” nature of Guaranteed Asset Protection (GAP) Insurance offering in the industry. The distribution model has continued to evolve as insurers try to better connect with their customers. Over the years, the Guaranteed Asset Protection (GAP) Insurance industry has seen a clear dominance of face-to-face selling (agents and brokers). However, with the increasing penetration of the Internet and customers preferring convenience, the digital mode of sales is becoming increasingly popular in Guaranteed Asset Protection (GAP) Insurance.

Furthermore, the years considered for the study are as follows:

Historical year – 2018-2023E
