Systems Planning and Analysis, Inc.

(SPA), a leading provider of innovative solutions in support of complex defense priorities, was awarded a seven-year, "indefinite" delivery/indefinite quantity contract in support of U.S. Air Forces in Europe and Air Forces Africa for advisory and assistance services. SPA is one of nine companies operating as a prime contractor on this $995 million multiple-award vehicle.

This is a great win for us as we continue to expand our support of the Air Force within international locations."

SPA CEO Rich Sawchak

Potential task orders include work on policy development, administration, and systems operations throughout the European and African continents, according to the US Department of Defense.

"This is a great win for us as we continue to expand our support of the Air Force within international locations," commented SPA CEO Rich Sawchak. "Our history of exceptional support to the Air Force positions us well to expand our trusted services in Europe and to support new opportunities in Africa. We look forward to these exciting opportunities to deliver enduring value to the Air Force and our international partners."
