MAHWAH, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, March 17, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Along with the investment from Polish technology company Euvic SA. , Euvic, Inc., announced the introduction of new senior business executives Christopher Krzoska as COO and Michael Majcherczyk as CRO to further develop client services and accelerate growth.

The Euvic Group has been mentioned or awarded by Forbes, Gartner, EY, and others for its competency and incredible growth over the last few years. The Group announced plans to become a one-billion-euro company by 2030 with expansion in North America as a key part of the strategy.

Euvic provides technical expertise and development resources to help companies manage the entire software development lifecycle with a focus on business outcomes and value for time and money spent.”

Christopher Krzoska Chief Operating Officer (North America) at Euvic Inc.

“This investment is part of our greater international expansion strategy and will go a long way to position Euvic to become the best technology solutions partner for businesses in North America. We are thrilled to welcome Christopher and Michael to the global Euvic family” said Wojciech Wolny, CEO and President of Euvic SA.

Euvic Inc., was established in 2011 in the US to provide companies in North America with high-quality and cost-effective technology solutions by seamlessly integrating on-site American and off-shore European teams. Since then, Euvic has successfully partnered with companies operating in financial services, retail technology, and other industries to solve complex business challenges with robust technical solutions.

"With strong natural growth of over 50% from 2021 to 2022 and the wide acceptance of well-integrated remote working environments, we believe the time is right to expand our mission of providing companies in North America with the best value for investment thanks to solutions delivered by the technical talent in Poland and the EU" said Leszek James, President and CEO of Euvic, Inc.
