In terms of future spending options, travel has been recognized as the top priority with greater focus on unique luxury experiences and adventure activities. Surge in interest of people to explore new places and to have unique travel experiences have encouraged market players to offer food & beverage products and regional liquor flavors that connect travelers to local culture of the destination and explore the unknown acquaintance of the place and its people.

However, changes in socio-economic conditions threaten the growth of the market. On the contrary, market players are coming up with new specialized limited edition products for duty paid travel retail categories to cater to the needs of travelers, which is anticipated to offer remunerative opportunities for the expansion of the market during the forecast period.

The duty paid travel retail market is segmented into product type, sales channel, mode of travel, and region. On the basis of product type, the market is categorized into perfume & cosmetics, electronics, food, confectionery & catering, tobacco, wine & spirits, luxury goods, fashion & accessories, travel accessories, and others. The luxury goods segment is further segregated into premium jewelry, luxury watches, luxury cosmetic & perfumes, luxury wines & spirits, and others.
