The mid-tempo groove is a departure from his previous sound and sees TEEMANAY expressing his playful side as he tries to woo a beautiful lady he met at a previous engagement. The song tells the story of a guy who is trying to get a girl to take his calls after getting her contact, but she's giving him a tough time. According to her, nothing good comes easy.

TEEMANAY'S unique vocal dexterity shines through in this new release. Listeners will hear words like "STHANDWA SAM," a Zulu word for "love of my life."
