

INTERPHEX and The Center for Professional Innovation & Education Reach Agreement for Accredited Programming

INTERPHEX has announced plans to offer approved pharmaceutical and biotechnology certification courses, provided by CfPIE

MALVERN, PENNSYLVANIA, USA, March 17, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- INTERPHEX has announced plans to offer approved pharmaceutical and biotechnology certification courses at the 2023 event, taking place April 25-27 at the Javits Center, provided by the Center for Professional Innovation and Education (CfPIE).

CfPIE, the worldwide leader in quality life science training for over twenty years, offers a wide range of pharmaceutical and medical device certification programs in key business areas including regulatory policy, product development, go-to-market strategies, compliance, and more. Since their inception in 2001, CfPIE has trained over 34,000 professionals.

CfPIE, in collaboration with INTERPHEX management, will develop, curate, and provide relevant and timely Training Sessions specifically for INTERPHEX 2023 attendees, taught by expert, industry-active instructors.

"The INTERPHEX Show Management team is always striving to enhance the event and bring additional value to our customers, and we believe the courses being offered by CfPIE will do just that," says Douglas Lugo, Event Director of INTERPHEX. "For customers looking to advance their careers within the pharmaceutical and biotech industry, CfPIE's certification courses add credibility and keep you up-to-date with emerging trends and best practices."

"CfPIE is excited to partner with INTERPHEX, the leading global pharmaceutical technical conference, to offer six of our pharmaceutical and medical device training courses live and in-person during the April 2023 event," says Mark Mazzie, CEO of CfPIE. "Each course will count toward one or more of our industry-recognized certification programs. We're looking forward to developing an innovative program that brings additional value INTERPHEX customers."

Information on how to register for Training Sessions will be available in the coming months. Course attendees will acquire 14 credit hours through three partial-days of interactive presentation by expert instructors, as well as receive complimentary access to the entire INTERPHEX event, along with exclusive interaction with vendors specific to the course chosen.
