of Advisors. JR brings with him a wealth of experience and knowledge that will be invaluable to the company's growth and success as it rolls out its cashback API to businesses and banks.

JR Badian is the former Chief Marketing Officer for K&N Engineering where he was responsible for brand marketing, direct-to-consumer marketing and sales, and new product marketing development. During this time, JR's team supported K&N's key retail partners including Walmart, Amazon, AutoZone, and O'Reilly on their merchandising and promotions. Prior to K&N, JR was the Vice President of Digital and CRM at MasterCard. JR holds a Masters from Columbia University in Organizational Leadership and an MBA from Babson College. He also studied at Indiana University's Kelley School of Business where he received his undergraduate degree in both Finance and Marketing.

"We are thrilled to welcome JR to our team," said Daricus Releford, CEO of StoreCash. "His skills and expertise will be instrumental in helping us achieve our growth and sales goals while serving our business customers more effectively."

JR will be advising StoreCash on its sales strategy to banks and businesses of its custom plugand-play cashback API. JR will also work closely with the StoreCash team, collaborating on brand marketing and strategy and on projects and initiatives that will further enhance the company's reputation as a leader in the retail cashback industry. "I am excited to join StoreCash as an Advisor and be a part of such a dynamic fintech startup," said JR Badian. "StoreCash's technology provides businesses a key tool for acquisition and retention. I look forward to contributing my skills and expertise to help the company grow and succeed."

JR joins StoreCash at a time of rapid growth and expansion. The company recently closed its seed round in September 2022 and has 51,000 registered users on its retail cashback platform.
