Binary Torrent will be able to utilize its global reach by introducing a new way of monetizing social media. Their product is a cultural software platform combining friends, cultures, content, courses, commerce, and community to help people scale their impact, give them a free voice, and the unique opportunity to monetize what they are. They are also in the last stages of introducing online services with debit cards, crypto wallets, and loyalty programs. Services will start to roll out during the 2nd quarter of 2023.

"We are happy to be able to attract so many great industry leaders. The fact that we have the means to create spread and usability with our products and services through our members and our new ambassadors is magnetic, says Binary Torrents Vice President of Sales and Marketing, Bo Jensen."

"Binary Torrent uses direct selling to offer essential benefits to people who want an opportunity to earn income and build a business of their own, to consumers as an alternative to bringing revenue to the big social media companies. Bo Jensen continues that we provide a system where we can leverage the everyday activity of what everyone is already doing."
