

District 5 Commissioner Marvin Arrington Jr. & South Fulton Mayor Pro Tem Natasha Williams- Brown Host Town Hall

District 5 Commissioner Marvin Arrington Jr. and South Fulton Mayor Pro Tem Natasha Williams-Brown are hosting a town hall on the 2023 homestead exemption.

SOUTH FULTON, GA, USA, March 20, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- District 5 Commissioner Marvin Arrington Jr. and South Fulton Mayor Pro Tem Natasha Williams-Brown are hosting a town hall to provide information on the 2023 homestead exemption. The homestead exemption is a legal provision that helps reduce the amount of property taxes on owner-occupied homes.

"We understand how important it is for homeowners to be able to take advantage of this valuable tax break," said Mayor Pro Tem Williams-Brown

"This town hall will provide an opportunity for citizens to learn more about the process and ask questions." The home must be your legal residence for all purposes including the registration of your vehicles and the filing of your Federal and Georgia income tax returns. Applications can be filed year round, but must be submitted on or before April 1st in order to apply for the current tax year. Applications received after April 1st will be applied to the following tax year.

"We want everyone to know that if they are currently claiming homestead elsewhere, they must notify the appropriate authority to remove the exemption," said Mayor Pro Tem Williams-Brown. "Homestead exemptions are not granted on rental property, vacant land or on more than one property (in this state or any other state)."
