Every person is searching for peace, and it seems this is becoming increasingly hard to find. That peace is found in firstly, coming face to face with yourself ” increasingly hard to find. That peace is found in firstly, coming face to face with yourself and secondly, committing to a journey of overcoming and healing with the Lover of your soul. Part of winning yourself back and gaining that soul-health is gaining back our God-given soul-freedom. This is God’s way of restoring humanity, returning our minds back to ourselves ~ healed and whole. He has purposed us to be restored to Him, to be like Him in His love, joy and creativity. He has fashioned a healed soul with joyful emotions, an emancipated will and a limitless intellect with wise capacity (the mind of Christ).

Your will was created to be free, untethered by the world, the flesh, and the devil and intimately flowing with God Himself. It is where your true willpower and decision-making reside, contributing to the adventurous journey of becoming whole, happy, and mature.

In this book, he reveals more from personal revelation and scripture where this ultimate lifestyle can begin and mature. Yes, I can lead you to the water; but, I cannot force you to drink. That is what your free-will is for; that is how you gain dominion in life.

Dr. Gershom adds, I pray for Heaven’s help to restore people to the joy of life and hope for today and for the future. The aim is to recreate a sort-of reset in your mind right now from the standpoint of how immensely valuable and significant you are in the eyes of our Creator. He paid the highest price so you would live in the greatest quality of living.

It is said that it is not so much having all the answers in life, but having the wisdom to ask the right questions. Throughout your reading, my heartfelt prayer is that you would glean from the writing to bring you to your own questions about yourself. All to bring you to a point of reconsideration and recalibration. Each person has thus the responsibility to consider and contemplate the state of their own soul.
