$SNPW Elba Solar Power

SNPW is currently being supplied with advanced solar technology products from top Original Equipment

Manufacturers (OEM) in various parts of the world who are best suited to serve their specific territories. In conjunction, SNPW is presently adding highly trained solar technology specialists who have over 30 years of experience in the industry.

The SNPW Alabama solar products manufacturing plant will be managed by a wholly owned subsidiary operating company called Elba Power Corp. SNPW recently announced on its official company Twitter site, Alabama state agreements for 100% tax abatement for 10 years on property and sales and use tax. Elba Power Corp has negotiated an inducement resolution for $50 million with Alabama. This will allow SNPW to issue taxable and tax-free bonds for a 20-year term to help fund the project.

SNPW management projects that its Elba Power Corp. operation could reach $450 million or more in annual sales once fully operational.

□ SNPW has Engaged the Services of Invictus Risk Solutions to Provide Insurance Wrap for $50 Million Funding of its Solar Manufacturing Plant

On October 17th SNPW announced that its wholly owned subsidiary, Sun Pacific Power (“SPP”) has engaged the services of Invictus Risk Solutions to assess the opportunity of providing an insurance wrap for a $50 million-dollar funding of the company’s planned US-based solar manufacturing plant through Lloyds of London, London corporate, and other supporting insurance markets. The financing is commencing at this time and an underwriting analysis of the project will determine feasibility, testing, and other market considerations.

Nicholas Campanella, CEO of SNPW, stated, “As part of our renewable energy platform we move through our underwriting, analysis, and feasibility study. We have identified properties that will add high value to our platform of becoming a key solution in the solar industry while producing over 1GW of solar panels per year for our customers. This project should make an important contribution to the emerging solar industry in its fast-growing market.”

Mr. Campanella further added, “We are excited to be working with a strong team of advisors and underwriters who will provide our insurance wrap in cooperation with the State officials. The state’s team is providing strong access to a labor force as well as classifying our proposed property as a foreign trade zone designation.”

Paul Rowland, Senior Partner of Invictus Risk Solutions, stated, “I was very impressed with Nick’s experience and strengths and by the detail and positivity of the Sun Pacific business plan. Accordingly, I am certain that we can find a way to provide a “best in class” and “best in market” service and solution. This will support the risk transfer structure that the Sun Pacific business model and funding requirements in the short term. In the long term, we hope to establish a strategic friendship and partnership going forward with Nick and his panel of other valued advisors.

The purpose of our engagement is to offer a bespoke suite of insurance products that “wrap” around the proposed investment and project. Our singular goal is to protect all parties by advancing, amongst others, accounts receivable, construction, financial, liability, management, and operational elements to enhance and support the security of the proposed project.

By offsetting the risk, we seek to drive the enthusiasm and positivity of the proposed key funders to engage.”

Invictus is an award-winning Client Advocate insurance, risk management, and securitization consultancy. The company continues to stand out above its competitors through a long-term strategy which is to provide the correct risk transfer solutions to evidence an attentive, knowledgeable, proactive, and professional service.
