"As our first Southeast Regional Conference, I found the entire experience to be deeply moving, both personally and professionally," said Hildra AnnaJean, Ph.D., Founder of Sigma Chi Psi

Sorority, Inc. "To see so many members attend, learn from guest speakers as well as one another, connect, and lift each other up not only resonated with me; it served as a reminder of the important role our organization plays in bringing together women who choose to further pursue their education online."

The Southeast Regional Conference marked the first in a series of inaugural Sigma Chi Psi Sorority, Inc. regional conferences. The organization will host additional events in Houston, Detroit, Las Vegas, and Atlantic City in the coming months, culminating in its highly anticipated Mermaid Gala Ball in Atlanta.
