/EINPresswire.com/ -- Consus Global, a globally recognized provider of supply chain solutions, is thrilled to announce that it has been shortlisted once again for the Procurement Consulting Project category in the World Procurement Awards 2023, with Consus having previously won the award in 2022. The World Procurement Awards, hosted by Procurement Leaders, celebrates the most exceptional individuals, teams, and organizations in procurement, making it one of the most prestigious professional recognition programs in the industry.

"We are deeply honored to be recognized alongside leading procurement organizations once again. As a global procurement consulting organization, we are committed to delivering the highest value to our clients, advancing the field of procurement, and setting a path towards procurement excellence.
