

Quattro Capital Partners with Angel Investors Network to Expand Multifamily Housing Investment Opportunities

The strategic partnership aims to bring wealth-building real estate investments to a broader audience

SEATTLE, WA, UNITED STATES, March 30, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Quattro Capital, a premier investment firm specializing in residential multifamily real estate, has announced a strategic partnership with Angel Investors Network (AIN), a platform that connects investors with various investment opportunities. The partnership will make multifamily housing investing more accessible to AIN's network of investors, offering them the chance to grow their wealth and achieve financial freedom.

Angel Investors Network provides a platform for investors to seek out and find new investment opportunities across several asset classes, including private equity, real estate, and publicly traded markets.

Our entire team is excited to work with Angel Investors Network and bring our opportunities to an even wider audience of investors.”

Quattro Capital*

"We are thrilled to partner with Quattro Capital and bring this incredible opportunity to our network of investors," said Jeff Barnes, CEO of Angel Investors Network. "Their expertise in multifamily housing investing, combined with our extensive network, will help more people achieve wealth and the freedom to live life well."

Angel Investors Network is known for connecting its members with a wide range of investment opportunities across private equity, real estate, and publicly traded markets. Quattro Capital specializes in residential multifamily real estate, focusing on purposeful investing aligned with revitalizing neighborhoods and providing solid returns for investors.

"Our entire team is excited to work with Angel Investors Network and bring our opportunities to an even wider audience of investors," remarked Chad Sutton, one of Quattro's founders. "We're a family business, and partnering with a credible brand like AIN that supports our vision is extremely important to us."

Quattro Capital aims to provide investors with reliable returns and added tax benefits by targeting value-add properties in emerging and stable markets. The Quattro Capital team brings a wealth of experience, with over 20 years in real estate and over 95 years of professional experience across various industries. Their investment criteria are designed to reduce risk and achieve strong returns.

John Reighard, Chief Investment Officer at AIN, remarked, "It's fantastic having the Quattro Team on board with us. They have a strong track record with their investments, and our investors will thoroughly appreciate their work ethic and production ability."
