

Consulta Immigration Offers Family Based Immigration Services to US Citizens and LPRs

Valuable immigration services are now personalized, efficient, reliable, affordable--- and available online.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, March 23, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sometimes, basic and important things can get needlessly complicated, confusing and expensive! Especially when it comes to critical and time-sensitive immigration matters. It shouldn't be that way.

It is why Consulta Immigration makes it easy, with the personalized touch of expert and experienced professionals helping with valuable immigration services to US Citizens and LPRs.

"We work hard and we are proud of our proven successes," says Tania Cruz, co-CEO of New York's Consulta Immigration. "Our online formula is built on one simple principle: efficient and reliable family-based immigration services."

While Consulta is a state-of-the-art, online immigration platform and an easy and effective way for people to access important immigration services from the comfort of their homes, the personalized human touch is vital.

It's the reason why a skilled and experienced immigration expert is assigned to help each Consulta client navigate the easy-to-follow online process.

The popular and respected firm was founded with the objective that, a majority of the time, there are alternatives to lawyers filing a proper application with USCIS (US Citizenship and Immigration Services).

"We are the effective alternative!" explains co-CEO Yasaman Soroori. "We have created a unique way to make immigration procedures readily available and more affordable, so everyone can benefit.

“Consulta is a knowledgeable and experienced consultation service---not a law office. Our online platform is not only a valuable way to get success-driven immigration services, but it is very affordable. No office appointments or paying for unnecessary legal fees, charged by lawyers.”

The co-CEOs explain that their firm is focused on spreading awareness about immigration filing. Whether it's the Form I-130/ Petition for Alien Relative, or Form I-751/Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence, and other USCIS applications, Consulta's online platform, together with the advice of Consulta professionals, simplifies the process and helps make it easier.

“Our platform, and Consulta's human touch, allows people to complete USCIS applications and, most importantly, helps them file properly and successfully,” Soroori emphasizes.
