

Trinity Bay Vocational Institute, Inc. (TBVI) and the National Black Chamber of Commerce (NBCC) form National Alliance

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, March 24, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The new alliance between the TBVI, Inc. and the NBCC will Support TBVI's efforts to Increase its Workforce Development and Skills Development Program offerings to individuals interested in becoming Electrical Technicians, Instrumentation Technicians, Plumbing Technicians, and Process Technicians.

On Friday, February 3, 2023, the National Black Chamber of Commerce (NBCC) executed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Trinity Bay Vocational Institute, Inc. (TBVI). The signatories to this agreement were Charles H. DeBow, III, President/CEO, NBCC, and Alfred Mitchell, President/CEO, TBVI, Inc. The term of this MOU covers the two educational centers of Trinity Bay Vocational Institute located at 1002. Gemini St., Suite 200N, Houston, TX, and 8184 Villavaso St., St. James, LA.

The MOU establishes an operational framework that directly supports the goals of both entities. It offers educational pathways to underrepresented community members who can develop skills leading to fulfilling, financially viable, and life-long employment. The MOU provides TBVI an opportunity to enhance its training program offerings to the electrical technician, instrumentation technician, plumbing technician, and process technician, facilitating TBVI's outreach and training efforts to increase the number of prospective tradespeople. The NBCC will assist TBVI's growth with financial resources.

The terms of the MOU afford TBVI the flexibility in the delivery of educational curricula tailored for its participants. Furthermore, it supports the following TBVI's emphasis:

- (1) Leveraging the trainees' fortitude as the foundation by which the individual recognizes that they can achieve through the execution of principles and self-discipline.
- (2) Aligning the trainees' personal and professional development with TBVI's values of accountability, respect, responsibility, critical thinking, communication, and collaboration.
- (3) Empowering the student and supporting their desire to achieve their chosen career trade while simultaneously igniting the student's responsibility to give back to their community.

About the Trinity Bay Vocational Institute Inc. (TBVI)

TBVI, Inc. was founded in Houston, TX, in 2018. Conceptually, TBVI was developed and implemented by industry professionals who recognized the need for skilled laborers. The group acknowledges the fact that not all individuals are college-bound. So, they created pathways that would afford viable, financially rewarding career choices to individuals interested in the trade industry. Currently under construction are our websites, www.trinitybayinstitute.org (Houston location) and www.trinitybaylouisiana.org (Louisiana location).
