The company, which also sells an assortment of galvanized buckets for floral, gardening, and crafting use, has been in business for over 35 years and has already built a loyal customer base. Although the terms of the deal were not disclosed for confidentiality purposes, Carver's Olde Iron was sold within a few percentage points of the full asking price.

Carver's Olde Iron Founder Mr. Doyle Carver stated, "I couldn't believe how many people were interested in my business. The future looks bright and I am pleased to pass the torch to a new owner who is passionate about the business and the products we offer.
