This play explores the narrative of Joshua Sullivan, an impressionable young man, navigating through a modern world with a mindset that many would consider outdated and unrealistic. His story of faith rises above what his peers could ever ask or think, and leads him to operate with unimaginable patience, hope, and peace. His commitment to showing unconditional love to those around him alters the lives of his loved ones and strangers alike, in ways they could have never expected. Fusing together the musical elements of gospel, hip-hop, classical, and more, To Be More Like You is a family-friendly production that's sure to entertain, empower, and enlighten!

The lives that were touched and changed were unimaginable and the reviews were a resounding yes for the first time run that claims an all original storyline, musical arrangements, and overall production.

“We Loved it, Loved it, Loved it” said singer, songwriter, and recording artist Dasha Moore. “We believe that lives are going to be changed.” And don't worry, if you've seen it before, there are new songs and scenes added this time around that will truly blow your mind... again!

Tickets can be purchased from Tobemorelikeyou.eventbrite.com, and the productions website at www.tobemorelikeyou.com. The show times are April 14th at 7PM, April 15th at 1PM and 6PM Pacific, and a matinee performance April 16th at 4PM Pacific.
