COVINA, CALIFORNIA , UNITED STATES, March 27, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Epoxy Curing Agents Market accounted for US$ 4.25 billion in 2020 and is estimated to be US$ 7.66 billion by 2030 and is anticipated to register a CAGR of 6.1%. Epoxy Curing Agent are describe as a material taking a part in chemical reaction between the oligomer, pre polymer, polymer to attain the polymerization process and to produce the final film. Epoxy curing agent are used to the cure epoxy resins by the reacting with the epoxides groups. Epoxy resin system consist of two parts that is an "A" and a "B" side. B side known as a "hardener", is the epoxy curing agent. The curing agent is responsible for the reacting with epoxy resin A side. The reaction between the epoxy resin and curing agent results in hard and thermoset materials. When the air temperature is warmer then the epoxy cures faster.

Analyst View:

Increasing the demand for the high performance resins are obtained by blending polymers, generally in coating industry and in the paint would drive the growth market. High viscosity, excellent color consistency, and good adhesion properties are the main characteristics for the growth market. Thus the coating industry and growing paint is the significant factors for the growth of the epoxy curing agent. High floatation in the prices of the raw materials for the epoxies are the restraining factor for the curing agent market growth.
