The preserved fresh flower market is a rapidly expanding industry that provides customers with long-lasting floral arrangements. Preserved fresh flowers are actual blooms that have undergone preservation to maintain their vibrant natural colors and beauty for an extended period. Recently, the market has seen unprecedented growth due to factors such as increasing demand for sustainable and eco-friendly products, the expansion of e-commerce businesses, and rising popularity in home decor and gift giving. Preserved fresh flowers are becoming increasingly popular for home decoration, wedding and event decorations, corporate gifting, and event decorating.

Leading players in this market include Verdissimo Group, Rose Amor, Eternal Blossom, and Preserved Gardens. These companies are investing heavily in R&D activities to develop cutting-edge preservation techniques that can extend the shelf life and color retention of flowers. As there is an increasing demand for sustainable floral arrangements that last a long time, the
