The Investors Roundtable in Dubai 2023

We are confident that the connections and relationships formed at this event will lead to exciting new business opportunities for our members”

Dr. Raphael Nagel

The business function kicks off with pre-networking cheering the new connections before the opening remarks and special addresses by the conference's guest speakers. The keynote address, speech, and presentations provided the framework for the day's conversations, which focused on a variety of business and investment-related issues. Following a networking lunch break, keynote speeches, and roundtable discussions filled the room with informative insights and market trends of investments. The day came to a close with post-networking cocktails, giving participants plenty of chances to continue their interactions with other business leaders.

The speaker line-up at the event was truly stellar, featuring some of the biggest names in business and investment. Dr. Raphael Nagel, founder and chairman of the board of The Abrahamic Business Circle and Chairman of Tactical Management, brought his extensive experience to the stage. Co-founder of The Abrahamic Business Circle, Dr. Tillmann Lauk, a former member of the Global Executive Board of Deutsche Bank, shared his insights. The CEO of Hercules Holding, Dr. Andrea Claudio Galuzzo, who also co-founded The Abrahamic Business Circle, inspired attendees with his insights in "Breaking Barriers: Unleashing the Power of China's Most Innovative Technologies".

Attendees were treated to a variety of informative and engaging presentations by members who are experts in their own fields. The Investors Roundtable in Dubai covered a wide range of topics relevant to modern business, including talks about your gateway to growing markets from the Middle East, "Invest RAK" by Ras Al Khaimah Economic Zone (RAKEZ); Investing in the multi-trillion dollars decentralized GDP of Africa by Humanity International Investments; Achieving financial inclusion with Web3 by Davensi; while Landlab Developments presented a case study of innovative hotel development process from concept to completion; and the exciting presentations of Sawadi Ventures, OpenSpring, and Datatronics taking up the conversations to another level on becoming a unicorn which resulted from the combined value of cross-selling.

A variety of standout speakers from different industries delivered compelling presentations started on how immersive technologies are shaping our world by Institute for Transformational Development (ITD); while the Food & Nutrition Group, emphasized building sustainable food supply chains for exponential growth; the interesting master solution for the superior technology that destroys all types of virus mutations was carried out to the audience by Ava Biodefender; Global Invest Ventures Ltd, brought their wealth of experience in business and investment in taking up the capital with quality for economic development across geographies; and noteworthy perspectives of the panel group from Tembo Power Ltd, EBN & Co. Advocates, Abundy, Inc., Trisolar-Innowadi Group Ltd, and Zoho Corporation in expanding the discussions in powering the future, investing in sustainable infrastructure.
