Update on Ingredion

Ingredion has done all lab tests which include microbiology and nutritional evaluation of the GMSacha Inchi powder and a full test of the flavor, texture, and color of the GMSacha Inchi beverage. GMSacha Inchi powder and GMSacha Inchi beverage did comply with the requirement of Ingredion.

GMSacha Inchi and Ingredion start on step 2 which is to do the first pasteurization test of liquid bienestarina and Sacha Inchi before putting the final product into Tetrapack and to do an inspection of GMSacha Inchi plant in Medellin which is scheduled for the end of Abril 2023.

Step 3: to deliver the first batch of GMSacha Inchi to replace the 150 tons of flex that Ingredion imports to make Bienestarina.

Step 4: to do the first batch of Bienestarina with GMSacha Inchi in Tetrapak

Step 5: to expand GMS facility in Medellin. GMS current capacity is 8 tons per month. GMS needs to expand to 20 tons per month just to fulfill the orders of 7.5 tons of GMSacha Inchi for the 12,000,000 bienestarina in Tetrapak and 150 tons of GMSacha Inchi powder by August 2023.

Step 6: to open a facility in Cartago close to the Bienestarina facility that will have the capacity 20 tons per month.

Step 7: to open a facility in Atlantico close to the Bienestarina facility that will have the capacity 20 tons per month.

GMSacha Inchi with the help of the United Nation will bid for the PAE Programa alimenticio escolar of Bogota that delivers 700,000 meals per day and PAE Programa alimenticio escolar of Medellin that deliver 200,000 meals per day.

That is over 216,000,000 of GMSacha Inchi tetrapak per year for both PAE programs.
