

The Importance of Hiring a Level 2 Electrician in Sydney: An Insight by Gordon Powers

SYDNEY, NSW, AUSTRALIA, March 28, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gordon Powers, a highly regarded provider of electrical services in Sydney, is proud to highlight the importance of hiring a Level 2 electrician for electrical works that require advanced skills and expertise. With over ten years of experience in the industry, Gordon Powers has a team of fully qualified, licensed, and accredited Level 2 electricians who can handle complex electrical jobs with ease.

In the highly regulated Australian electrical industry, Level 2 electricians possess advanced qualifications, enabling them to carry out tasks that go beyond those performed by general electricians. This includes specialised work on underground and overhead service lines, metering equipment, and power pole installations.

According to the experts at Gordon Powers, hiring a Level 2 electrician is essential for tasks such as:

- Power Upgrades: For homeowners looking to upgrade their power supply, a Level 2 electrician is required to ensure the safe and efficient installation of the necessary equipment.
- Defect Rectifications: If an electrical defect notice has been issued, a Level 2 electrician can quickly and safely rectify the issue, ensuring compliance with Australian standards.
- Metering Installations and Upgrades: Level 2 electricians are the only professionals authorised to handle complex metering jobs, including smart meter installations and solar metering upgrades.
- Power Pole and Temporary Power Installations: Level 2 electricians have the expertise to install and maintain power poles and provide temporary power solutions for construction sites and events.

The team at Gordon Powers understands the importance of providing high-quality, reliable electrical services. Their Level 2 ASP electricians are fully insured and licensed, and they strive to ensure customer satisfaction by providing prompt, professional service with a focus on safety.
