

Kerry W. Kirby Discusses Moving Multifamily Housing Operations from Centralized to Autonomized in Latest Podcast Episode

Centralize to Autonomize explores the latest technology trends in automation and automation entering the proptech market.

NEW ORLEANS, LA, UNITED STATES, March 28, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 365 Connect, the leader in delivering world's most sophisticated automated marketing, leasing, and resident engagement platform for multifamily communities across the globe, announced today that its CEO, Kerry W. Kirby, launched his latest podcast episode. Centralize to Autonomize: Creating The Ultimate Self-Service Tools With Trifactor Technology, is now available on MultifamilyBiz.com, the largest media resource in the multifamily housing industry, and across a global network of streaming platforms.

Kerry W. Kirby, Entrepreneur, technology innovator, and award-winning podcaster.

Centralize to Autonomize: Creating The Ultimate Self-Service Tools With Trifactor Technology delivers a comprehensive overview of the current economic market and its effect on the multifamily industry. The podcast delves into how businesses are shifting the way they serve customers through the power of automation to combat skill gaps, high staff turnover, and expanding operating costs. The segment also explores the latest technology trends in automation and automation entering the market.

“In order to succeed in the current marketplace, property managers need to implement an automated service approach to strengthen the capabilities of their workforce,” Kirby explained. “Change has never moved faster, but along with that change comes the need to revise our strategies and transform outdated processes to ensure continuity of services.”

Joining Kirby is property management expert, Ernest F. Oriente of PowerHour, an industry professional, and the author of SmartMatch Alliances. Oriente and Kirby have presented over 150 webcasts together, reaching over one-million listeners from around the world, and broadcasting across an array of podcast channels, such as Spotify, iHeart Radio, and Pandora. With nearly 50 years of combined experience in the multifamily housing industry, Oriente and Kirby deliver comprehensive, educational, and leading-edge programming, which has earned the duo an array of highly acclaimed global awards.

Oriente responded, "Kerry has his finger on the pulse of the latest innovations in the multifamily housing arena, and I am excited to join him in this discussion on the latest technology trends entering the market that will help our industry transform its operations. As with all the material we produce, we strive to deliver relevant, straightforward information to our audience, so they can better prepare for the next wave of developments taking place."

"The world has changed dramatically, and its effects are felt across every business and industry imaginable," Kirby concluded. "Onsite teams are spread thin, and finding qualified staff is even more of a challenge in today's market. Given the immense size of the modern-day rental market, it is crucial that multifamily housing operators leverage next generation technologies to not only better serve their renters, but also supplement their workforce."
