

Ajax Defense Announces Acquisition

Ajax Defense has announced the acquisition of Whelan Machine & Tool, a leading provider of precision machined products & services.

LOUISVILLE, KY, UNITED STATES, March 29, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ajax Defense, a veteran-owned small business holding company, has announced the acquisition of Whelan Machine & Tool, a leading provider of precision machined products & services. Whelan Machine & Tool, founded in 1989 and based in Louisville, KY has established itself as an important member of the defense industrial base, providing high-quality components to major defense contractors and programs.

"We are excited to work with Whelan Machine & Tool," said Patrick Malcor, CEO of Ajax Defense. "Their expertise in precision machining and their strong relationships in the defense industry make them an ideal investment for Ajax Defense and reflects our shared commitment to supporting important missions that contribute to national security."

Whelan Machine & Tool will continue to operate as a standalone business under Ajax Defense, with no changes to its current management team or workforce. The acquisition will enable Whelan Machine & Tool to leverage Ajax Defense's resources and expertise, while retaining its unique identity and customer relationships.

Ajax Defense was represented on all aspects of its acquisition of Whelan Machine & Tool by Potomac Law Group, PLLC and a team led by Corporate Partners, David Dargatis and Laurent Campo. For more information, please visit <https://www.potomaclaw.com>.
