With this book, we wanted to create a definitive roadmap for black men to navigate their unique journey with confidence... It's our hope that through the lessons and wisdom shared within these pages.”
CJ Dewey

"The GENTLEMN Guide to Life" covers a wide range of topics, including personal style and grooming, financial intelligence, emotional well-being, spiritual growth, community engagement, and much more. Through these lessons, black men will find the tools and knowledge needed to thrive in today's rapidly changing world.

Written by experts at GENTLEMN Co.™, a black-owned company based in Santa Monica, California, and edited by CEO/Founder C.J. Dewey, the book reflects the company's commitment to fostering health and wellness in the lives of black men. "With this book, we wanted to create a definitive roadmap for black men to navigate their unique journey with confidence, grace, and resilience. It's our hope that through the lessons and wisdom shared within these pages, readers will be inspired to embark on their journey to becoming the best version of themselves – true gentlemen in today's world," said Dewey.

The release date of the book has been intentionally set for Juneteenth, a day that celebrates the emancipation of enslaved African Americans in the United States. This significant date underscores the importance of recognizing and honoring the achievements, contributions, and progress of black men, as well as the challenges they face. The digital edition will be available on June 19th, 2023, with a hardcover edition to follow the next week, available for purchase on Amazon.
