ITALY, March 30, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Erick Kristal, the lion of African reggae, has released his latest powerful music video, "Wake Up Africa." This music video sheds light on the neo-colonization of Africa and the need for a collective consciousness to achieve an African awakening. The single is already available on all streaming platforms and is set to be released in Europe on March 30, 2023, on Italian broadcasters and across the world and all of Africa.

The single was released in Europe on March 30, 2023, on Italian broadcasters and across the world and all of Africa.

Talking to the media, Erick Kristal, who is also known as The lion of African reggae, said, "I want to reveal all the strategies used by the neo-colonizer of Africa, already torn and left behind, but today we must wake up. This visual opus reminds us that slavery has destroyed us and religion has divided us without forgetting the growing ignorance that controls us."

This music video is a call for a collective consciousness for an African awakening. Erick Kristal has 3 albums to his credit and in his own words, "I will not give up as long as the African people are still oppressed."

He is currently one of the best active reggaeman in Benin, Africa, and Italy, where he lives, to denounce the misdeeds of this collaboration between the West and Africa.

The single is already available on all streaming platforms and distribution around the world.
